Practice worksheet | Measuring and comparing

Choosing fair comparisons

Name: _____ Date: _____

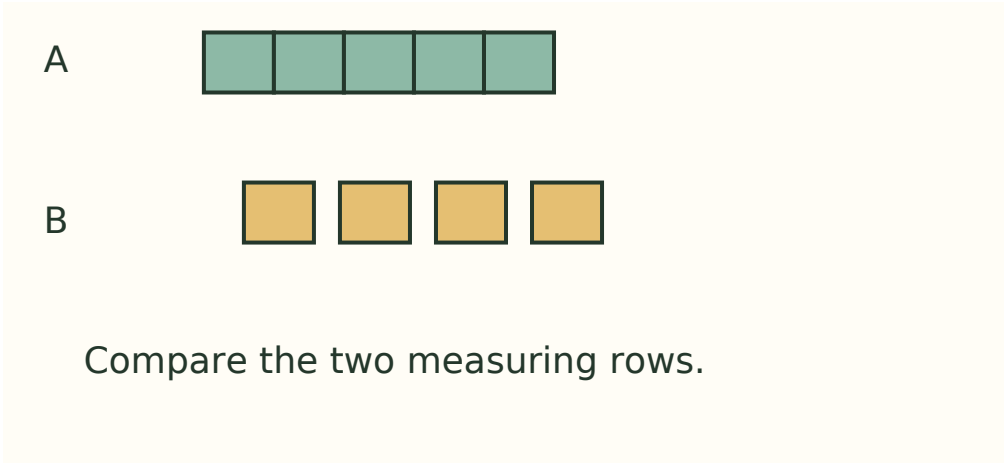

6 practice questions

1. You want the longest ribbon. What should you line up first?

2. You want the lighter toy. Which tool helps: a balance or a small cup?

3. You want the container that holds most. Which unit helps: equal cupfuls or pencil lengths?

4. Use the picture. Which row measures fairly, A or B? Explain.

5. A block row overlaps at two places. What must you fix?

6. A child says a tall empty bottle holds more than a short wide bottle just because it is taller. What would you suggest?