Practice worksheet | Measuring

Length, mass and capacity

Name: _____ Date: _____

6 practice questions

1. Would you measure length, mass or capacity to choose a ribbon long enough for a present?

2. Would you compare length, mass or capacity to find the heavier school bag?

3. Would you measure length, mass or capacity to find how much water a bucket holds?

4. A jar holds 4 equal scoops of rice. A tub holds 7 of the same scoops. Which holds more?

5. A toy balances with 6 equal cubes. A block balances with 9 of those cubes. Which has more mass?

6. A shoe is 8 equal blocks long. A pencil is 5 of the same blocks long. Which is longer?