Quarter/half/three-quarter/full turns

6 practice questions

1. An arrow points up. It makes a clockwise quarter turn. Where does it point?

Up moves to right for one clockwise quarter turn.

Answer: Right.

2. An arrow points up. It makes an anticlockwise quarter turn. Where does it point?

The anticlockwise direction goes from up to left.

Answer: Left.

3. An arrow points left. It makes a half turn. Where does it point?

Right is opposite left.

Answer: Right.

4. An arrow points down. It makes a full turn. Where does it point?

A full turn returns to the starting direction.

Answer: Down.

5. An arrow points up. It makes three clockwise quarter turns. Where does it point?

Up to right, then down, then left.

Answer: Left.

6. Luca makes two clockwise quarter turns. Name one turn that gives the same final direction.

Two quarters make one half.

Answer: A half turn.