Length/mass/capacity units

6 practice questions

1. Choose cm or m for a pencil length.

A pencil is a short object.

Answer: cm

2. Choose g or kg for the mass of a child.

A child has a mass of many kilograms.

Answer: kg

3. Choose mL or L for the capacity label on a typical household bucket: 9 ___.

9 mL is tiny; a bucket can hold several litres.

Answer: L

4. What does a kitchen scale measure: length, mass or capacity?

Scales measure how heavy something is.

Answer: Mass

5. What does L stand for on a bottle?

L is a capacity unit.

Answer: Litre

6. A desk is labelled 120 kg long. Correct the unit and explain.

Length needs a length unit.

120 cm is a sensible desk length.

Answer: 120 cm is sensible; kg measures mass.